LITTLE YACHTS RACE IN STORM.

Tecumseh Leads Crusader and Massasoit Around the First Merk-Wind Blows Twenty Knots-Rain Heavy.

BLACK ROCK, Conn., July 3.-In spite of a heavy rainfall and a wind blowing about twenty knots an hour from the southwest the regatta committee of the Bridgeport Yacht Club de-termined this morning to have the Seawanhaka trial races continue to-day, This decision was indorsed by the skippers of all the boats, as there is a general desire to have the little craft given a chance to show what they can do under heavy weather conditions.

Mrs. F. D. Crowninshield was announced this morning as one of the crew of the filibuster for to-day's contest. She donned odskins and joined her husband on the little boat.

Rain-soaked sails delayed the start of the little yachts, and they did no, leave the float to the starting line until 12.30. Further delay was caused by the work necessary in staking the triangular

The Tecumseh crossed the starting line first, about five seconds ahead of the second boat, the Crusader, at 1.10. The first leg of the triangular course is to the southeast, the second southwest, and the third due north to spar buoy at the mouth of Black Rock

The Tecumse's was alread in rounding the first mark, but was followed closely by the Crusader and Massasoit.

Tecumseh and Massasolt had a close finish in the second race, the former coming in first by a narrow margin. During this race the wind fresh-ened considerably and the last leg was salled in a breeze blowing ten knots an

The Tecumseh won the race, crossing the finish line at 1.54, unofficial time. The Crossager was a close second, with the Massasoit a short distance bealind. The second race was started at 1.30, the Secress crossing the line first, with Tecumsen close bealist. All the other yachts crossed a few seconds later, well bunched. The wind is growing lighter and the conditions for this race bid tair to be similar to those yesteruay.

The Regata Committee announced this afternoon that to-day's races will be their team might win. To the Natha afternoon that to-day's races will be the last of the trial series for the selection of the Sawanhaka challenger.
